CLARION.EDU/KIDS-IN-COLLEGE

Pennsylvania Western University promotes an inclusive environment that supports the academic, cultural and personal growth of all members of the campus community. The University values the richness of diversity and believes that the intentional recruitment, retention and accommodation of individuals who differ and are similar broaden and deepen the educational experience and the scholarly environment. By respecting pluralistic perceptions and continuously assessing and monitoring the campuses and community environments, the University community will foster open communication as students, faculty, staff and community learn to interact effectively with one another, creating and sustaining a supportive and respectful climate. Pennsylvania Western University is committed to creating an environment free of unlawful discrimination for all its employees, students, contractors, vendors and visitors. Accordingly, discrimination based on an individual's gender, gender identity, race or color, ethnicity, national origin or ancestry, age, mental or physical disability, religion or creed, genetic information, affectional or sexual orientation, veteran status or any protected class is prohibited. Pennsylvania Western University is committed to the principles of free expression and academic freedom. As such, "discrimination" as defined in this policy is neither legally protected expression nor the proper exercise of academic freedom.
