

Course Numbering Policy

Date Effective: Fall, 2014

Issued By: Faculty Senate

Contact: Registrar's Office, 814-393-2229

Purpose:

This policy describes the course numbering system at the University.

Policy:

Courses numbered 100 to 299 inclusive are primarily for freshmen and sophomores; 300 to 499 are primarily for juniors and seniors. Some courses numbered between 400 and 499 are acceptable for graduate credit. Beginning with the summer 2011 term, these courses will have a "G" after the course number. Courses numbered above 500 carry graduate credit.
