Tuesday, August 22 – First Year Fundamentals

The first official day of New Student Orientation Week kicks off with a welcome from University President Karen Whitney. Students will then rotate through sessions for academic and personal success with presentations from The Center for First Year Experience, including “the Path to Success” and “Making Meaning of the First Year.”

Wednesday, August 23 – Life Outside of the Classroom

Wednesday’s focus is on Life Outside of the Classroom. Students will rotate through sessions from the Center for Leadership and Involvement, the Center for Career and Professional Development, Student Financial Services and the Center for Wellness.

Thursday, August 24 – Being Part of the CU Community

Becoming a student at Clarion University means becoming a member of the university community. Throughout this day, students will have conversations about diversity, civility, personal safety and bystander intervention.

Friday, August 25 – Academic Acclimation

Getting to know the requirements of your major, the faculty and college academic life is important to success as a student. Academic Acclimation day is spent with professors and students in your major. After a morning of small group meetings, students will attend University Convocation followed by an evening banquet and activity.

Saturday, August 26 – Social Excellence & Service

Saturday’s schedule kicks off with a speaker on social excellence and is followed by a day of service and leadership development. Students will give back to the community by participating in a service activity. The day ends with the CU Spirit Rally and THE Welcome Dance.

Sunday, August 27 – Relax with CU

Sunday is all about learning how to relax with CU. The day will kick off with a variety of optional fitness activities. Then, students can learn about Clarion’s clubs and organizations at the Activities Fair. Ice cream, outdoor games and a band will round off the day’s activities.

Monday, August 28 – FIRST DAY OF CLASSES

The Book Store and Student Recreation Center will be open daily. Evening events and activities include an outdoor movie, Trivia Night, WINGO, THE Welcome Dance, Pinterest Craft Night, Night at the Rec and more! Movies will be held in the SOM-S theater Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. No guests are allowed.

COURAGEOUS. confident. CLARION.
