

College Spotlight – Pitt Bradford

The University of Pittsburgh at Bradford is a branch campus of the University of Pittsburgh, a state-related public institution that offers 115 academic programs consisting of 43 majors, 50 minors, 20 pre-professional programs and 2 graduate programs. Students graduate with a prestigious University of Pittsburgh degree, while receiving the benefits of a personal, close-knit campus community.

The most popular programs by enrollment are biology, computer information systems & technology, business management, nursing and criminal justice. Pitt Bradford also offers an Army ROTC program in conjunction with nearby St. Bonaventure University.

For more information go to <https://www.upb.pitt.edu/>

To register for a zoom group meeting with Admissions, schedule a personal telephone interview, or take a virtual tour, visit <https://www.upb.pitt.edu/visit-campus>

References

<https://www.upb.pitt.edu/>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/University_of_Pittsburgh_at_Bradford

Video Link

<https://youtu.be/UYeA-kSF1YM>

Student Profile

<https://www.upb.pitt.edu/posts/student-profiles/emily-reams>