

Douglas Education Center

College Spotlight

Today's college spotlight is on Douglas Education Center.

Douglas Education Center is a hidden gem located in Monessen, PA. It was originally a business school and has now turned into a school of the arts and trades. They currently have programs in special effects make-Up, film making, allied health, CDL and heavy equipment operation.

Tuition – The tuition and fees vary by program.

Room and Board – DEC does not offer on-campus housing, however, there is lots of off-campus housing surrounding the campus. The average cost for off-campus housing is $6,630 per year.

For Admissions information- call the admissions office at 724-653-2183.

To request information or to schedule a tour, visit their website at:

www.dec.edu

This is definitely a unique school and is worth the trip for a campus tour.