

SECOND ANNUAL BLACK STUDIES MINOR SYMPOSIUM

Sept. 16
2020

1 p.m.-3 p.m.
EST

PROGRAM

Opening Remarks	Brian Roberts, Ph.D., Asst. Professor, Moderator
Welcoming Remarks	Dale-Elizabeth Pehrsson, Ph.D., President, Clarion University
History of Black Studies	Brenda DéDé, Ed.D., Administrator Emerita
Black Studies Pioneer Award Black Caucus Service Award	Cahndice Matthews, Ph.D., Assoc. Professor, Presenter
Future of Black Studies	Joseph Croskey, Ph.D., Asst. Professor, Dir., University Advising Services Center
~10 minute intermission~
Black Studies in the Classroom	Kaersten H. Colvin-Woodruff, MFA, Assoc. Professor of Art Jane M. Walsh, Ph.D., Assoc. Professor of Social Sciences Jeffrey M. Diamond, Ph.D., Instructor of Social Sciences
Programs, Workshops &amp;	Rogers J. Laugand, M.A., Dir. of Multicultural Affairs and Diversity Education
Events on Campus	Amy E. Salsgiver, M.A., Dir. of Social Equity Ronald E. Radaker, M.A., Dir., Center for Access, Success & Achievement
What Does it Mean to be a Black Studies Minor?	Tamara Baker, Student of Black Studies Kimari Walker, Student of Black Studies
Q &amp; A with the Audience	Clarion University Black Studies Committee
Closing Remarks	Brian Roberts, Ph.D., Asst. Professor, Moderator

