

College of Arts & Sciences
Student Advisory Council
Mission Statement

The Clarion University College of Arts & Sciences' Student Advisory Council (SAC) serves to create and enhance communication among the students, staff, faculty, and administrators in the College. The Council advises the Dean's Office on current issues and provides recommendations on academic programs and strategic planning.

The members of the Student Advisory Council are expected to:

- Support the mission of the College of Arts & Sciences
- Participate in strategic planning initiatives
- Increase engagement of majors in the College within the context of the Pennsylvania State System Redesign
- Advocate for student issues
- Provide feedback to the Dean's Office in order to enhance programs, resources, and services
- Attend meeting and events sponsored by SAC, including council meetings three times per semester
